GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

April 3, 2022

5th Sunday of Lent

We love to make examples out of those who have erred and done wrong. Publicly punishing others serves as a means of demonstrating the consequences for what is deemed inappropriate or wrongful behavior. While this may appear an effective way of achieving conformity to established rules, it runs the real risk of distorting motivation. Obviously, we want people to do what is right and pursue healthy, virtuous behaviors and ideals. But is fear of punishment ever the best motivation for avoiding one action in favor of another? Doing something out of fear is never healthy. Focusing exclusively on our behavior and what others expect or think, leads to living life with a self-focused superficiality. We become more concerned about protecting ourselves from something negative and unpleasant, than investing ourselves in the freedom, wonder and awe of being human! We can still find our way to the unacceptable or inappropriate behavior as long as we do not get caught! Being a whole, focused, and God-centered human being requires more. It demands an investment of the heart. Virtuous, moral, and mature lifestyles reflective of the Gospel necessitate love. When we experience and recognize love, God's unconditional love, in the depth of our soul, we fall in love with what we have found. We then find ourselves leaving destructive and sinful actions behind in search of something more holy, dignified, true, integral, and loving. This is really "mercy realized." God's tremendous, loving, eternal forgiveness and willingness to bring us back to something more real and tender is transformational. The respect for myself that I receive from God is so life changing that it causes me to run quickly away from anything sinful and self-destructive to things that are whole and holy. There are many people who want nothing more than to judge or criticize us. What would actually stoning the woman caught in adultery really accomplish? Nothing more than the inflation of the already self-righteous egos of a few men who think they have power. They have no power because they are sinners too, just like everyone else. What all of us have is the humble ability to express sorrow for pursuing destructive thoughts and actions and receive the power of God's mercy. Then, Jesus' request to "go and sin no more" will be one we proudly heed and follow. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

La misericordia nos hace atentos a la voz de la verdad. No sabemos qué le sucedió a la mujer sorprendida en adulterio, después de su encuentro con Jesús. Se espera que haya encontrado lo que necesitaba para sentir verdadero dolor. Lo que sí sabemos es que, a través de su persuasión gentil y sabia, Jesús pone a los fariseos en su lugar y abre la puerta a la gracia para esta hija de Dios. Siendo explotada y utilizada para probar y desacreditar a Jesús, ella, que es públicamente conocida como pecadora, ahora es la víctima. Jesús nunca tolera que la gente sea usada e inmediatamente se apresura a defenderla. Como autor de la misericordia, Jesús se convirtió en su abogado y le abrió la puerta al amor de Dios. Jesús también se interpone entre nosotros y la postura dura, crítica y, a menudo, hiriente de nuestro mundo. Nos invita a la gracia, a dejar el pecado que nos ata y por el que a menudo se nos critica, y a buscar una vida de virtud y libertad. ©LPi
