GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

March 13, 2022

2nd Sunday of Lent

There is so much wisdom in the first commandment. The daily demands of life, current political ideologies and dynamics, social expectations, corporate philosophies, and even technology can easily become lesser gods. We can find ourselves beholden to and held captive by these secular constructs and systems. Even for those who profess a faith in the one true God, these lesser, attractive but false gods are a temptation. Being overly preoccupied and even obsessed with the state of our present lives, we lose sight of our real destiny and purpose.

Jesus showed his disciples a glimpse of this destiny when he was transfigured before their eyes. In fact, Peter was so caught up in the brilliance, awe, and sacredness of these fleeting moments that he wanted to extend them as long as possible. Wonderful things happen when we leave our illusions and discover something that is true. This is why creating some sacred space in our lives for reflection, prayer, renewal, refreshment, centering ourselves, and disconnecting from the noise is so important. It shows us how false and shallow our lives can be and what is really of importance. Do you create some kind of sacred space in your life? Lent is a perfect time to do so.

St. Irenaeus, one of the early fathers and martyrs of the Catholic Church, said that, "he who was the Son of God became the Son of Man that man ... might become the son of God." We mistakenly believe that life is all about us. It's not. Ours is a journey of transformation in which we become more and more one with the mind of Christ and Christ himself. St. Augustine saw this same transformation occurring when the Eucharist is received. In receiving the Eucharist, we become what we eat, the Body of Christ. Honestly acknowledging false gods that we cling to can open the door for God to show us the wholeness and holiness to which we are called. Take time to discover the sacred. When we do, we will want to stay there for a while. Then, when we return to our personal affairs, we will see more clearly.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

13 de marzo de 2022

2º Domingo de la Cuaresma

Si bien tenemos que ser conscientes de nuestras responsabilidades sociales y personales en este mundo, nunca podemos perder de vista dónde se encuentra nuestra verdadera ciudadanía: el cielo. Cuando nos sumergimos demasiado en las cosas terrenales y nos preocupamos demasiado por nuestras responsabilidades temporales, podemos volvernos insensibles a nuestra fe. El volvernos ambivalentes acerca de nuestra fe, nuestra creencia en Jesucristo y las promesas del cielo se convierten más en una fuente de agitación que en una fuente de promesa y esperanza. Es fácil convertirse en enemigo de Cristo sin siquiera saber que está sucediendo. Dios nos ha dado un destino muy claro. Definitivamente no estamos destinados a conformarnos a este mundo sino a la transfiguración y glorificación de nuestros cuerpos por venir. Es aquí donde podemos ver claramente no solo quién es Dios, sino quiénes somos nosotros. La forma en que muchos llevan a cabo las actividades diarias de sus vidas sugiere que tal promesa o esperanza es de poca importancia. ¿Qué dice de ti la forma en que vives tu vida diaria?
