GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

March 20, 2022

3rd Sunday of Lent

Deserts can be lonely, isolated, and treacherous places. When a person wanders in a desert, they can easily get disoriented, dehydrated, confused, lost, and vulnerable. Temptation is at its peak, especially when confronted with something that may offer some respite or relief, even a mirage. Deserts can bring us to our weakest moment and tempt our faith. The Christian journey can be described as a desert experience as we vacillate back and forth, falling victim to the mirages of our lives versus the true, life-giving water offered by God. We need a burning bush experience in our lives that convinces us of the power of God and reveals Him as the "I am" of all existence.

Moses was leading his flock across the desert when he found himself at Mount Horeb. Mountains give us a fuller perspective of life, a panoramic view of what would otherwise be hidden from the limitations of our sight. That's when Moses met God. We have to find our way to a mountain experience where our vantage point can take on a wider view of life. Many things can do this for us: the birth of a child, the death of someone we love, the joy that comes from marveling at the beauty of God's work, the pondering of life's mysteries, and the ache of longing found deep within our souls. There are many things in life that can wake us up, give us a clearer, better view of things and become occasions where a bush may burn and God's presence as the eternal uncreated One is revealed.

God is very patient and gives us the time and space we need to figure things out and bear some good fruit. He doesn't rush to cut us down or get frustrated with our barrenness. But we have to remember that the desert journeys of our lives come with some risks. The major risk is that we will mistakenly believe that the mirages are real. Thus, we fall victim to thinking that the respite and refreshment we seek is discovered in a place other than where it actually is. Our faith and the life of the Church are the safeguards we need to keep us properly orientated so that we don't get lost or confused and stay on course. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Dios revela claramente su identidad como "Yo soy el que soy." Dios, que está realmente más allá de todos los nombres, es Aquel que simplemente "es" como la base de todo ser. Esta presencia eterna, increada y omnipresente de Dios incondicional, que es Amor, es muy paciente mientras espera que crezcamos y cambiemos. Dios está tan cerca de nosotros que es fácil pasar por alto su presencia. Como lo requiere el amor verdadero, Dios busca una relación dedicada, íntima, libre y exclusiva con cada uno de nosotros. Mientras caminamos a través de las experiencias de nuestras vidas, reseca y desérticas, es fácil que, en nuestra sed de agua y un respiro del calor, busquemos y construyamos ídolos que nos traerán alivio y satisfacción inmediata. Estos dioses falsos, hechos de nuestras comodidades y deseos terrenales, pueden rápidamente ocupar el lugar de Aquel que realmente tiene prioridad en nuestros corazones. Los seres humanos a menudo se han alejado de Dios, como nos recuerda San Pablo. Al ayudarnos unos a otros a cultivar y fertilizar el suelo sobre el que caminamos, Dios nos da otra oportunidad más para dar frutos y regresar. ©LPi
