GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 14, 2022

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

An inward transformation occurs in a person who decides to follow Jesus Christ. Things change. They see the world differently, understand their journey more deeply and profoundly, have their sights fixed on eternity and union with God and hold themselves to higher standards and virtues. It requires a conscious choice to be a Christian, and this choice must be renewed at least daily. While the basic premise of Jesus' message may appear heartwarming and straightforward: love of God, neighbor, and self, the implications of doing so are challenging. The true disciple is called to live radically, and often finds themselves at odds with the world or even with those in their own homes.

Holding ourselves to higher standards comes with a price. We have to leave other things behind. It is difficult to be people of faith, hope, and love in a world often fixated with its own fulfillment and self-absorption. Justice, temperance, prudence, and fortitude require sacrifice if they are to be lived with integrity. God's ways are not ours. This becomes crystal clear to those who have enough courage to stand against the tide. Putting love into action requires that we challenge accepted modes of doing business and fight complacency. This is what makes the saints stand out as witnesses. They are simply sinners, just like us, who persevere.

People do not want to be told that they're sailing their ships in the wrong direction. Clinging to their insistence and need to be correct, they can become defensive when challenged. This can happen even with those closest to us. As much as the Gospel calls us to unity, it also can easily create division. When we love seriously, we encounter more than feelings of warmth and acceptance. "What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like (St. Augustine)." Love also has the courage and honesty to tell people what they may not want to hear but need to, and model, without wavering, a life of humble, loving, and faithful service. Don't lose heart! There are many examples of faith before us and around us. If Jesus endured the voices of opposition, so too can we. There is no need to apologize for speaking the truth. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Hay una "gran nube de testigos" que se encuentra en los santos oficiales de la iglesia y en la gente común que conocemos todos los días. Son inspiraciones llenas de fe que, con su ejemplo, nos ayudan a perseverar en nuestra fe. Viviendo en un mar de conflicto, cambio, desafío y confusión, es fácil cansarse y agotarse. Con tantas cosas compitiendo por nuestra atención, es un desafío mantener nuestros ojos fijos en Jesús y el Reino de Dios. Tenemos que seguir corriendo la carrera y seguir proclamando la Buena Nueva. Este mensaje no siempre es bienvenido. Puede causar división, desafiar las mentalidades aceptadas, molestar a la gente y hacer que algunas personas se pongan a la defensiva. Los caminos de Dios no siempre son nuestros caminos. Aunque muchas veces rechazado por el mundo, el mensaje de Dios en Jesucristo debe continuar siendo predicado. Podemos confiar en los ejemplos de fe que tenemos ante nosotros y a nuestro alrededor y no desanimarnos. Así como Jesús soportó las voces de la oposición, nosotros también podemos. ©LPi
