GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 21, 2022

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The serious disciple knows the necessity and value of discipline. Thinking of discipline as something punitive in nature, we underscore its place in our spiritual lives. Discipline is really about a radical trust in God and his guidance. "When you are conducted by a guide who takes you through an unknown country at night across fields where there are no tracks, by his own skill, asking no advice from anyone, giving no inkling of his plans, what choice do you have but to give yourself completely to his guidance? If you are convinced that he is a good guide, you must have faith in him and abandon yourself to his care (Jean-Pierre de Caussade)."

If someone wants to be physically fit, they readily find a competent trainer who sets them on a rigorous schedule. Determined to reach their goals, they sacrifice personal pleasure and trust in his guidance. Why should it be any different with God? In order to remain true to the way Jesus places before us, we have to listen, learn, and be willing to change. Falling in love with God and maintaining that relationship requires an investment of time, energy, and hard work. Putting personal preferences aside in pursuit of the Gospel and giving proper attention to our spiritual lives is challenging work. At first, "all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it (Hebrews)."

"What God does is essentially good. It does not need to be reformed or controlled...If you would live according to the Gospels, give yourself completely and simply to the action of God (Jean-Pierre de Caussade)." Submission to the holy will of God is not a submission to a set of pre-ordained set of circumstances. Rather, it is an abandonment and trust in God's creative, life-giving, and salvific power. God brings light out of darkness and life out of death. Nurturing this bond of trust and seeking God in all things creates an intimate and particular relationship and bond between our Creator and us. When He comes, there will be no issue with us recognizing Him or Him recognizing us. We will have met before. ©LPi

"People will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God. For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." - Lk 13:29-30

"Vendrán muchos del oriente y del poniente, del norte y del sur, y participarán en el banquete del Reino de Dios. Pues los que ahora son los últimos, serán los primeros; y los que ahora son los primeros, serán los últimos". - Lc 13, 29-30

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

La disciplina es necesaria para que centremos nuestra atención y desarrollemos y perfeccionemos nuestras habilidades. Una persona disciplinada tiene integridad y puede tomar decisiones difíciles pero necesarias. A la mayoría de las personas no les gusta la disciplina, especialmente a los niños. Cuando tenemos que superar nuestros impulsos y deseos y hacer algo desafiante, puede parecer un castigo. Las luchas de vivir una vida cristiana buena y eficaz, especialmente cuando elegimos activamente la virtud sobre el vicio, son permitidas por Dios y necesarias para alcanzar la madurez espiritual. Dios nos invita a compartir Su Reino. Escuchar y aceptar esa invitación requiere una decisión activa y consciente de nuestra parte. Reformar nuestras vidas y cambiar la forma en que hacemos las cosas no es fácil. Pero es precisamente lo que nos hace falta para entrar por la puerta estrecha que lleva a la vida. La disciplina es esencial si vamos a descubrir nuestro deseo de unión con nuestro Creador y vivir en la casa de Dios. De esta manera, no nos arriesgaremos a encontrar la puerta cerrada cuando necesitemos que esté abierta. ©LPi
