THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Years ago, a woman at daily Mass approached me in the communion procession. She had her arms crossed, indicating she wanted a blessing instead of the Sacred Host. She had tears in her eyes. I gave her a little blessing. She returned the next day. And the next. The same thing repeated. After a few weeks, I asked her why she didn't receive Holy Communion. She said she wasn't Catholic yet and was preparing to become so. I asked her why she wanted to be Catholic. She said, "Because I long to be in a real communion with Christ and with everyone I love." That, I submit, is a darn good reason. A few months later, she became Catholic and received the Body and Blood of Christ with unspeakably great joy and still does to this day.

Saint Paul says of the Eucharistic bread, "Is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" For Paul, the answer is obvious. Yes, it is exactly that. Which is why he can say, "we, though many, are one body." Jesus is truly, really, and substantially present in the Holy Eucharist. This is no magic trick, but a mystery of our salvation. He feeds us with the Sacrament of his body so that our communion with him — and with the other members of his body — is built up and becomes mature. That's why the Eucharist quenches our deep thirst for love and communion. The Body and Blood of Christ is the best reason to be Catholic. It's our participation of love in the one we love.— Father John Muir ©LPi

El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

Celebramos hoy la fiesta del Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo, que viene a ser como una versión del Jueves Santo. Jesús se sienta a la mesa en la Última Cena y da de comer y beber a sus discípulos: "Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo. El que come de este pan vivirá para siempre. El pan que daré es mi carne, y lo daré para la vida del mundo (Juan 6,51). Ahora, nosotros se lo agradecemos, adorándolo en la custodia durante la hora santa y visitándolo en el sagrario. Le pedimos que acompañe y bendiga nuestro caminar en familia, escuela, trabajo y en la sociedad. La Eucaristía es fuente de vida, porque el Señor se hace presente en el pan y el vino, para darnos la fuerza necesaria y poder enfrentar las dificultades que tenemos en el camino.

¿Para qué nos sirve este Sacramento de la Eucaristía? La respuesta es sencilla, para alimentarnos con Cristo, para acrecentar la vida de Dios en nosotros, recibida desde el bautismo, para fortalecernos en las dificultades y para tener unidad en la Trinidad. Al comulgar, se supone que somos renovados e impulsados a hacer el bien. Jesús vive en la Eucaristía: "Mi carne es verdadera comida y mi sangre es verdadera bebida. El que come mi carne y bebe mi sangre permanece en mí y yo en él" (Juan 6,55-56). Qué misterio tan grande y hermoso permanecer en Jesús, convertirnos, transformarnos en él, para beneficio de muchos en la sociedad, tan falta de amor y de paz. Lo cierto es que si no comemos de ese pan y no bebemos de esa sangre no tendremos vida. Así de simple. @LPi

- Helping our vulnerable neighbors who are struggling with access to meals, medical care, and basic hygiene needs;
- Giving our Catholic schools valuable resources to teach His Word to the future generations that are growing more-and-more secular;
- Supporting the young men and women who are discerning their call to serve Christ as our future clergy members and other forms of the consecrated life.

All funds raised through the Catholic Appeal of South Carolina stay in South Carolina.
