4th Sunday of Lent

As much as we need to be welcomed, we are also the one who needs to do the welcoming and mercy giving. Those we love need our guidance, but they don't always take it. We know that what they are doing is off the mark, self-destructive and wrong. We have to let them go and let it happen, even though they might get hurt. As we wait and hope, they choose to make their way back to us. They don't need us to judge them. They have done enough of that to themselves. We immediately embrace them and are just happy they're home. God uses us to help heal them. Knowing how much we craved understanding and forgiveness ourselves, we can now freely give it away. God uses what he has taught us to teach others.

¿Alguna vez has pensado en el hecho de que eres un "embajador de Cristo"? Un embajador es un diplomático acreditado y un representante oficial. Se nos pide que seamos embajadores de Cristo y su mensaje de reconciliación. Dentro de cada uno de nosotros hay un hijo pródigo que se da cuenta de la necesidad de regresar a casa, un hermano mayor que lucha con su sentido de derecho y la autocompasión, y un padre perdonador que simplemente quiere celebrar el amor. Al darnos cuenta de que todas estas cosas operan en nuestro corazón, podemos aportar credibilidad al ministerio de reconciliación de Dios. Los testigos genuinos son aquellos que no solo reconocen su necesidad de integridad, misericordia y perdón, sino también su tendencia a ser demasiado egocéntricos y tercos. Luego, al descubrir la libertad de todo lo que los ata, entonces pueden extender a los demás el amor que han recibido. Estos embajadores encarnan la unidad, la misericordia y la reconciliación y pueden mirar a los demás con profunda compasión porque saben lo que es caminar en sus zapatos.

¿Puede Dios contar contigo para entregar este mensaje? ©LPi

Gusten y vean qué bueno
