GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 24, 2021

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When we see God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, it is only then that we will be able to cry out, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me!" We have to truly want to be healed by, and in union with, God in order for us to reach out to him. If God is only an abstract idea, theory, or someone found in the pages of a book, there is no motivation for a relationship and no desire to seek him. God needs to be real in order for faith to be real. It's all about the journey. St. Augustine reminds us that "to fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement." We strive after many things and mercy is not always one of them. We think that we can find fulfillment and healing in other things only to discover that we are still short and empty. From the moment human beings were created, God has been calling us and seeking us. He has been walking right beside the human story from the minute He first breathed life into the first human soul. Are we able to recognize God as He walks with us? At some point we have to realize that there is only one way to satisfy the deepest longings of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. We are called to this. However, we make the huge error of thinking that what we are hearing is coming from somewhere else. We become confused. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong. Then and only then will we realize that it is only our Divine Master who can give us true vision and heal us. Once we recognize and reach out for the merciful presence of our loving Maker, we will be able to see with our soul, understanding the true nature and depth of all things. God's mercy is always available. It doesn't matter how far we have strayed or how blind we become, God patiently waits to console us, guide us and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him. Once we reach out, we also realize that there is no greater love to be found than God's, no human adventure that comes even close to the thrill of a spiritual search, and no human achievement even remotely as satisfying as union with Him. This is where we belong. This is salvation. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

"Enamorarse de Dios es el mayor romance; el buscarle la mayor aventura; el encontrarle el mayor logro humano." Estas palabras de San Agustín son eternas. Todo ser humano sin duda se beneficiaría de la sabiduría si se diera cuenta de quién los llama y a quién pertenecen. Solo hay una forma de satisfacer el anhelo más profundo del corazón humano y es en una relación con nuestro Creador. Cuando buscamos a Dios con verdadera sinceridad de corazón y Dios nos pasa por nuestro camino, clamaremos: "¡Jesús, Hijo de David ten compasión de mí!" Instintivamente sabremos que es solo nuestro Divino Maestro quien puede restaurar nuestra vista y sanarnos. El ciego se enamoró de Jesús, se embarcó en esta aventura de salvación de vida para alcanzarlo y logró una meta que muchos solo remotamente pensaban posible. Esta es la misericordia en acción. No importa cuán lejos nos desviemos o cuán ciegos nos volvamos, Dios espera pacientemente para consolarnos, guiarnos y sanarnos. Todo lo que tenemos que hacer es desearlo a Él con todo nuestro corazón. ©LPi
