GOSPEL MEDITATION-ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

September 5, 2021

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the time we are born into this world until we die, our human radar picks up signals about how to respond to life. What we picked up on when we were very young carries an even greater power. The messages we receive and process tell us what we are “supposed” to do with our feelings, how to understand and cope with disappointment, anxiety, failure, death, illness, and what to expect out of life. As life unfolds for us, these radar messages kick in and resonate in us at very deep levels. Sometimes what we have learned is helpful and sometimes it is not. The stories we have been told, especially when we are young, about how life is best lived and how to negotiate its pain carry a heavy weight. Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. It also can be quite unpredictable and, at times, unfair. We face our vulnerability and brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. It doesn’t take much for life to quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar and true is gone and something we relied upon, physically, emotionally, or spiritually, can be taken away. It is hard to confront our limitations and sit with our incompleteness. Often, life hurts us so much that we find ourselves sitting in a pool of sadness, not sure what we are supposed to do. It is particularly hard when the signals we have inherited tell us that we need to be successful in what we do, and we have to avoid life’s unfairness. We can feel like a failure, wondering what precisely we did to deserve this fate, or ruminate about what we did not do correctly. But it’s really not about us. We are part of a bigger picture and a much more fascinating story! If we cease doing battle with life’s incompleteness and see ourselves, as God does, on a journey toward wholeness and completeness we can better accept our disappointments and stand firm. The prophets told us, and Jesus reassured us: Be strong! Fear not! Sometimes we have to update our stories and replace them with newer, more accurate ones. When we make God’s story our own and tune our radar into His voice, what we hear is all about restoration, healing, and rejuvenation! This is true even when we think we have hit rock bottom and can go no further. There is always hope. Remember the words of Julian of Norwich: God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. Now, listen to God when He says, “be opened!” Be healed and allow your stories to change. ©LPI

You are just, O Lord, and your judgement is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

23^{ER} DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Le llevaron entonces a un hombre sordo y tartamudo, y le suplicaban que le impusiera las manos. El lo apartó a un lado de la gente, le metió los dedos en los oídos y le tocó la lengua con saliva. Después, mirando al cielo, suspiró y le dijo: “¡Effetá!” (que quiere decir “¡Abrete!”). - Mc 7, 32-34

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

La vida puede ser desafiante y aterradora. A veces, realmente duele ser un ser humano. Enfrentamos quebrantamiento de todo tipo: físico, emocional y espiritual. Sin razón aparente, la vida puede desmoronarse rápidamente. Lo que sabíamos que era familiar se ha ido y algo en lo que confiábamos ha desaparecido. Nos quedamos sentados con nuestra incompletitud y nadando en los charcos de nuestra tristeza. ¡Sé fuerte! ¡No temáis! Estas amonestaciones fluyen de la boca de los profetas y son repetidas por Jesús. Es difícil confiar en que la restauración, la sanación y el rejuvenecimiento llegarán algún día y permanecerán firmes en nuestra fe. Pero estamos aquí por un Dios que nos ama, no como resultado de un hecho fortuito. Cuando buscamos esa verdad sobre quiénes somos y quién es Dios, la vida cambia para nosotros. Somos sanados de nuestra antigua forma distorsionada de ver las cosas. Nuestros ojos, corazón y alma están abiertos a la belleza y magnificencia de la vida. El pulso de nuestro amoroso Creador se siente en todas las cosas y no podemos esperar a que Dios venga y nos toque de nuevo. Dios nos hizo, Dios nos ama y Dios nos guarda. Ha hecho bien todas las cosas. ©LPI
