St James lost a true believer in Our Lord, Jesus Christ, with the passing of our long-time parishioner, Candi Beverly (she was married in the old church on Hwy 501). Before St. James offered adoration, she spent time every week with our Lord at St. Michaels. As St. James moved into perpetual adoration, she transferred her time here and increased her time. She attended adoration THREE times a week. Would you like to honor her life and devotion by taking over one of her three hours? Please sign in to cover either Wednesday 5:00AM-6:00AM or Thursday 5:00AM-6:00AM. Be assured she will pray for you as she rejoices with her Lord.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE Third Sunday of Easter

We often act out of ignorance. Armed with the best of intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don't always understand the full meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, our judgments and actions can be impaired by myopic, incomplete or erroneous perceptions. The meaning of life, understanding of human experience, and negotiating life's challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were opened. It was their "aha" moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going positively and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and disoriented. Our faith in the goodness and love of God is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult and challenging moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. We can gain, from the passion and resurrection of Christ, the clear vision we need in order to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our "aha" moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel totally connected with God, where we find ourselves, others and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey. Our "aha" moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us and around us bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters when we are lifted up out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, "peace be with you," and we feel secure. It's all okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. Some people, as they are facing their deaths, remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God's goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News. ©LPi

Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day." - Lk 24:45-46

Entonces les abrió el entendimiento para que comprendieran las Escrituras y les dijo: "Está escrito que el Mesías tenía que padecer y había de resucitar de entre los muertos al tercer día". - Lc 24, 45-46

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Cuando el saludo "La paz sea contigo" se ofrece sinceramente a una persona, puede resonar muy profundamente en el interior, brindando consuelo y tranquilidad. Cuando alguien posee el poder de traer paz, nos lleva a un lugar seguro y nos llena de alegría. El Cristo resucitado tiene este poder. Dios puede abrir nuestra mente para que comprendamos más plenamente el significado de la Sagrada Escritura y el abrazo compasivo, amoroso, tierno e incansable de Dios, constantemente presente y ofrecido a los hombres a lo largo de la historia. Sin el ancla de la verdad que solo Dios puede proporcionar, fácilmente podemos asustarnos y aterrorizarnos al ver lo que la vida nos trae. Al estar abiertos a la oferta de paz de Dios, podemos alejarnos de los viejos hábitos y la visión miope y experimentar la alegría y el gozo del don de Dios. Sólo entonces se podrá reparar lo que está herido y roto y se podrá lograr la reconciliación. Somos los testigos de la resurrección llamados a anunciar la Buena Nueva. ©LPi

St James perdió a un verdadero creyente en Nuestro Señor, Jesucristo, con el fallecimiento de nuestra parroquiana de mucho tiempo (se casó en la antigua iglesia en la Hwy 501) Candi Beverly. Antes de que Santiago ofreciera la Adoración, ella pasaba tiempo cada semana con Nuestro Señor en St. Michaels. Cuando Santiago se mudó a la Adoración Perpetua, ella transfirió su tiempo aquí y aumentó su tiempo. Asistió a Adoration TRES veces a la semana. ¿Le gustaría honrar su vida y devoción al hacerse cargo de una de sus tres horas? Regístrese para cubrir el miércoles de 5:00AM a 6:00AM o el jueves de 5:00AM a 6:00AM. Tenga la seguridad de que ella orará por usted mientras se regocija con su Señor.
