From Music Director, Peggy Kamp

Calling all current and former members of the St. James Choir. Most of you know that I am retiring as of August 15, 2021. I am not leaving the church. I will still be here and will continue to cantor when available. However, the church is actively searching for a new music director. I am hoping that on my last day, Sunday, August 15th at the 9 AM mass, we could come together one last time with me as the director and do a couple songs that we know and are favorites of mine. I will hold one rehearsal for that mass on Thursday, August 12th. This is also the final cantor rehearsal for the summer. Rehearsal will be at 7 PM. I want to thank you all for the support you have given me these last 7 years. I truly enjoy being Music Director and will certainly miss it. If you know of former members that might be interested in singing for this one mass (no long term commitment, although maybe they would reconsider and come back to the choir), feel free to contact them and give them this information. This choir has been and will continue to be so very special to me.

I wanted to share a couple testimonies from people who traveled on our recent bus trip in June to Kentucky. We have received so many texts, emails & cards from all our trips but I wanted to share just a few with you so we can all see the wonderful blessings people receive on our bus trips.

Dear Pastor Tom and Sandy, Robin and I would like to thank you both. For an excellent, relaxing, educational and deeply SPIRITUAL trip, and venture and encounter, the entire trip was wonderful. We have been telling people of the trip, and experience. God Bless...Al & Robin

Dear Tom & Sandy, I would like to thank you for the wonderful experience I had on the bus trip to Kentucky. It was my 1st bus trip in many, many years and I was impressed. The two of you made me feel welcome. I'm glad that my husband & I will be on the Nashville trip with you. Thank you and God bless...Mary Jean, St. James

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT
19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Christ makes it quite clear that he expects us to be different. One of the ways he expects us to be different is by practicing stewardship of time, talent and treasure.

PENSAMIENTO DE MAYORDOMÍA
19avo. del Tiempo Ordinario

Los dones de Dios que el ángel llevó a Elías – comida, agua, descanso y ánimo – fueron dados no sólo para su propio bien, sino para fortalecerlo para el servicio. ¿Cómo estoy usando mis dones para servir a los demás?
