If you are in need of assistance, please find an application form in the front office or on our website under the Mission St. James tab or contact Taylor Lilly at 843-347-5168, ext. 235 or by e-mail at tlilly@stjamesconway.org. We are also looking for volunteers to add to our team! If interested, please contact Taylor.

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities--to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

LENTEN READING GROUP: Catholic Social Thought has been called the "best kept secret" of the Church in the modern world. Parishioners interested in learning more are invited to join a Lenten reading group on social teaching led by Dr. Michael Promisel. Meetings will occur in-person (Parish Hall) and online at 7:00PM, every Tuesday of Lent. Email MPromisel@mac.com for more information.

Do Everything In Love

In everything you do,

Do it in love

For the Father is watching

In Heaven above.

At work or at play

Offer words of kindness to others

To the cashier, the barber

The bus driver and new mothers.

Jesus is the example

That we all should follow

Love is the ultimate gift

To give those in good times and sorrow.

The Church, as a voice of the Gospel, proclaims the sacredness of all human life. Everyone created by God is fashioned in God's image and has Divine DNA at the center of their soul. God never leaves what God creates but always remains intimately bound to what he has given form. Everyone has a place and because they have received the gift of Divine Blessing, nobody deserves to feel inferior, unworthy, unwanted, unclear or marginalized. Even the most broken of souls has a place. We, the Body of Christ, have the privilege and responsibility to give voice to the voiceless. The cries of the little one in his or her mother's womb are just as sacred as the cries of one who is homeless and hungry. The migrant deserves our attention as much as the forgotten elderly and even the prisoner, with a heart hardened by anger and resentment, deserves respect and dignity.

The Gospel of Life is often hard to swallow, and we would rather keep those we consider unclean, different or unfixable in a place by themselves. It is hard to see them with us, but they deserve to be. There is far too much violence in this world and the result of that violence is the assault on human life. Many are forced to leave the place they call home in search of safer ground, finding few if any along the way who will help them. How different today's Gospel story would be if Jesus gave in to what was politically correct at that time. The leper would have been turned away and a soul, already beaten down by disease and fear, would have experienced an even deeper wound. Jesus wouldn't have captured much attention from anyone, nor would he have mirrored the Father's compassion and love.

Where do we stand with all of this? Do we at least understand that God's vision is often in conflict with the vision put forth in our world and even the one we advance ourselves? There is no doubt that it is incredibly challenging to find a place for everyone at the table. This challenge is compounded when the systems of operation and structure that are so ingrained in us affirm power and privilege rather than inclusivity and justice. Everything really goes askew when the powerful begin to control who is entitled to wholeness and inclusion, and greed becomes a driving force. Prejudice and entitlement raise their ugly heads and we find ourselves with quite a mess. It's time to admit that things have been a mess for a very long time. The mess needs to be healed, not by erasing it but by allowing God to touch it and make it whole. We need to bring God back to the center of life where God belongs. There are no easy solutions to the world's dilemmas. But, knowing that wholeness, healing, and dignity are worthy pursuits, we can more confidently labor to achieve God's vision. ©LPi “Pero la gente venía a él de todas partes” (Marcos 1:45). Tengo presente en mi mente, los inicios de la pandemia que azota al mundo desde el 2019. Conforme llegó el 2020, los casos se multiplicaron en todo el mundo. La angustia se apoderó de muchos de nosotros por la enfermedad, la falta de trabajo, la pérdida de viviendas, y más. También, fluye el recuerdo del Papa Francisco haciendo oración por el fin de la pandemia. Acudimos a orar gente de todos los lugares de la tierra. Cada país, cada gobierno encontró la forma de orar juntos, Misa, Hora Santa, y el Rosario. ¿Lo recuerdas? Nuestra oración continúa sin cesar. ¡Sananos, Señor, como aquel leproso del Evangelio! Límpianos, necesitamos tu compasión.

La Iglesia tiene grandes santos y santas que se han dedicado al cuidado de los enfermos. Uno de ellos es San Camilo de Lellis. Nació el 25 de mayo de 1550 en Abruzzo, Italia. Fue sacerdote. Murió el 4 de julio de 1614. Es el Santo protector de los enfermos, a quienes cuidaba y atendía con amor. Parte de su oración dice así: “Haznos, como San Camilo, conscientes de que, en el rostro del enfermo, del que sufre y está agobiado o del que padece grandes necesidades, está tu mano acariciando a nuestro corazón”. Ojalá, que el ejemplo de este santo católico nos ayude, ahora, a nosotros, a girar nuestro corazón y la mente hacia a Dios. Para, lograr así, ser personas de compasión y servicio. Dejarse tocar por Jesús tiene su compromiso. Arrodillarse, pedir, y lo más importante querer. ¡Quiero Señor, no me dejes! ©LPi

SACRAMENTO DE LA SOLICITUD DE ENFERMEDAD: Este es el nombre propio de lo que a veces se llama erróneamente "últimos ritos" o "extrema Unción". Está destinado a cualquier persona que tiene una enfermedad grave, se enfrenta a una cirugía, o incluso si está tratando con los efectos de la ancianidad. No debe limitarse a los moribundos. Como dice claramente la Carta de Santiago: "¿Hay alguno que esté enfermo entre ustedes? Que envíen a los sacerdotes de la Iglesia, y que los sacerdotes oren sobre ellos, ungiéndolos con aceite en el nombre del Señor..." Es un sacramento de sanación para el espíritu, la mente y con frecuencia el cuerpo. Se administra en una Misa mensual, por lo general el primer lunes, y en cualquier momento a petición.
