LENTEN READING GROUP: Catholic Social Thought has been called the "best kept secret" of the Church in the modern world. Parishioners interested in learning more are invited to join a Lenten reading group on social teaching led by Dr. Michael Promisel. Meetings will occur in-person (Parish Hall) and online at 7:00PM, every Tuesday of Lent. Email MPromisel@mac.com for more information.

CONSISTENT ETHIC OF LIFE: Pope John Paul II once said: "Where life is involved, the service of charity must be profoundly consistent. It cannot tolerate bias and discrimination, for human life is sacred and inviolable at every stage and in every situation; it is an indivisible good." Join us on Saturday, March 20, at 10:30AM as we dive into what a consistent ethic of life looks like in society, and how we as Catholics are called to fulfill this idea. Stephen Schneck, executive director of the Franciscan Action Network, will join us (via zoom) for a presentation on the consistent ethic of life followed by a group discussion. We encourage all parishioners and community members to take part in this presentation! We will be in the church with plenty of room for social distancing. Contact Taylor Lilly for questions at 843-347-5168, ext. 235.

CALL TO FAMILY, COMMUNITY, AND PARTICIPATION: Catholic Social Teaching tells us that how we organize our society -- in economics and politics, in law and policy -- directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

February 7, 2021

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If I only knew then what I know now, how different life would be. This sentiment, expressed in myriad ways, is found on every human being's lips at one point or another. Life may have brought us to a vulnerable place where we see some of the poor choices we made and the effects they are having. Perhaps we fell into some destructive and dysfunctional relationships or behaviors and are finding how they held us captive. Our zeal and passion for life may have drifted away and we are waking up to the reasons apathy has taken hold. Life can be hard. In fact, some would describe their lives as a drudgery. They walk through each day with an anxious unsettledness, wondering when their restlessness will cease. There is a temptation to believe that what I see is all I will get. Mortality and hopelessness await the dawn. If I could only have known what would come in the future, I could have made better choices and avoided all of this misery! Really? While we can certainly give into weakness, sin, impulsiveness, and idiosyncrasies that cause us to stumble over ourselves, life is really a journey. If we don't make the mistake of wallowing in the mire of self-pity and realize the new life God is calling us to, then there are thrills, adventures, surprises, and soul-searching graces we can surely miss. We are not tethered to our past nor are we bound to the ill life can bring upon us. We are never hopeless or helpless. The problem is that our myopic vision only allows us to see the misery and misfortune that is before us, not the potential that can come from choosing healthier and more life-giving options. Jesus came that we might have fullness of life. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet. We need to allow God into our pain and heal our past. We have to wrestle with our histories, agonize and search and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. Job could not see how his story would end or trust the guidance of the God who called him. We live in that same blindness and suffer from the same lack of confidence. Once we allow ourselves to be touched by God's healing power, we begin to see that all of the pieces of our lives are necessary parts of a greater whole. Along the way of our lives, God uses our omissions and failures to create new things and possibilities. When doors close, others open and we can be amazed by the joyful and unexpected surprises we receive. Once we know the power of God's creative, healing, life-giving, forgiving, and dynamic presence, it is no wonder we want to put ourselves at the service of others and show them what life can be. ©LPI

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

¿Te has preguntado alguna vez cómo sería la vida si pudieras ver el futuro y saber cómo van a suceder las cosas? Si bien es intrigante reflexionar sobre cómo sería la vida si tuviéramos este conocimiento, el conocimiento real podría fácilmente privarnos de la emoción, la aventura y las gracias de la búsqueda de nuestra alma de nuestro viaje. Como Job, la vida no siempre nos deja felices. La experiencia de la vida puede ponernos cara a cara con nuestra mortalidad y dejarnos con una profunda sensación de impotencia. No vemos la plenitud y cumplimiento que vendrá un día y no podemos comprender la certeza de que llegará una resolución a nuestra plegaria. Necesitamos aprender a tomar la mano de Jesús y dejar que nos ayude a ponernos de pie. Vivir una vida de fe significa darnos cuenta de que no estamos aquí para descubrir la vida por nuestra propia cuenta. Para beber profundamente de lo que la vida nos presenta, tenemos que luchar en lo más profundo de nuestra alma, agonizar y buscar, posiblemente llegar al punto más bajo de la desesperación y clamar por la sanación Divina que necesitamos para restaurar nuestra fe, esperanza, y amor. No es de extrañar que aquellos que son tocados por el poder sanador de Dios quieran luego servir a los demás y mostrarles las aguas más profundas que se pueden explorar. Saber demasiado puede privarnos de sorpresas gozosas. ©LPI
