7 THEMES OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Catholic social teaching is a central and essential element of our faith. Its roots are in the Hebrew prophets who announced God's special love for the poor and called God's people to a covenant of love and justice. It is a teaching founded on the life and words of Jesus Christ, who came "to bring glad tidings to the poor...liberty to captives...recovery of sight to the blind" (Lk 4:18-19), and who identified himself with "the least of these," the hungry and the stranger (cf. Mt 25:45). Catholic social teaching is built on a commitment to the poor. This commitment arises from our experiences of Christ in the eucharist. In the coming weeks, we will share the 7 Themes of Catholic Social Teaching, that we are called to follow in light of Jesus' ministry and his call to follow in his footsteps.

LENTEN READING GROUP

Catholic Social Thought has been called the "best kept secret" of the Church in the modern world. Parishioners interested in learning more are invited to join a Lenten reading group on social teaching led by Dr. Michael Promisel. Meetings will occur in-person (Parish Hall) and online at 7:00PM, every Tuesday of Lent. Email MPromisel@mac.com for more information.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 24, 2021

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

It was a normal day by all accounts, but John just wasn't feeling himself. He was a little lightheaded and out of sorts. Later in the afternoon, he experienced a sharp pain in his chest and arm. Quick thinking and action brought John to the emergency department with a diagnosis of a significant heart attack. Surviving this ordeal, he found himself face to face with his cardiologist, having an honest conversation about things that needed to change. "I came close to death," John found himself thinking. Then came the remorse. He was a young man with a loving wife and children who were very close to facing life without him. John found himself with intense sorrow for living an unchecked and self-indulgent life that almost brought him to his demise. He wanted to change. We all have our wake-up calls. We have experiences and encounters that force us to really think twice about choices we have made and directions we have taken. Often, we find ourselves looking at those we have hurt square in the eye and wallowing in our foolishness. We regrettably realize that we have allowed our needs to lure us into making some cruel mistakes. We impulsively say things and flippantly do things that reveal our unredeemed and unhealed self. It is a self we stumble over and try to tame but can't quite seem to master and control. Help! We spin our wheels, naively thinking that we will somehow, perhaps through persistence, get ourselves unstuck. But, we don't. We just get out of the car, feeling very helpless, and ignorantly look at the mess we got ourselves into. Did we ever think to ask someone for help? Or, taken the advice of one who is wiser and avoid this route altogether? "Come after me," are words that Jesus says to all of us. In order to heed his invitation, we must leave our ego-self behind and follow. When we really see and understand the freedom, peace, justice, and love he offers, we find ourselves with such sorrow in our hearts for how foolish and silly we have been. All the misguided choices and sinful actions come full view and we see how risky our random impassioned behaviors really have been. Repentance is beautiful. When done with a sincere and contrite heart, it directs us to the glory that can be ours, ignites us with the challenge of living a life in service of others and reminds us that all is well. ©LPI

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

"Arrepiéntanse y crean en el evangelio." Algún tipo de arrepentimiento honesto y sincero es necesario para cualquier tipo de crecimiento y madurez auténticos. Tenemos que llegar a la realización, a menos que seamos felices revolcándonos en la inmadurez y la superficialidad, que la forma en que hemos estado haciendo las cosas no es la mejor ni la más saludable. No hay un ser humano vivo que no haya actuado de manera tonta o errática a costa de casi perder una relación preciada. "¿Por qué actué de esa manera?" es una pregunta que solemos meditar después de un poco de reflexión e iluminación. La fe funciona de la misma manera. Tropezando por la vida y chocando con la falta de sentido, una persona puede comenzar a ver que falta algo significativo. Ven que hay mérito en una relación con Dios y un abrazo de fe. Antes de que estos puedan echar raíces, es necesario un dolor sincero por las malas acciones del pasado, las oportunidades perdidas, los errores de juicio y la miopía. El arrepentimiento es necesario. Luego, al darnos cuenta de que estábamos caminando en tinieblas, podemos regocijarnos de que por la gracia de Dios ahora vemos la luz. ©LPI
