GOSPEL MEDITATION-ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong. The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the "road less traveled." Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are. The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence. If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take. ©LPI

PENSAMIENTO DE MAYORDOMÍA

11 de julio 2021- 15avo. del Tiempo Ordinario

Las lecturas de hoy son acerca de ser elegido y enviado. El profeta Amós fue elegido por el Señor y enviado para que usara su talento para el pueblo de Dios. El Evangelio cuenta la historia del envío de los doce discípulos; y en la segunda lectura, San Pablo nos recuerda que nosotros también somos elegidos. ¿Para qué he sido elegido yo? ¿A quién he sido enviado?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Dios nos llama a llevar Su Palabra a todos los rincones de la tierra. ¿Qué significa eso para ti y para mí? Nosotros somos gente sencilla y humilde que trata de encontrar nuestro camino a través del Evangelio y nuestro mundo. Después de todo, no somos predicadores profesionales, sino siervos apacibles. Jesús nos llama a llevar su mensaje al camino y llevarlo del banco al pavimento. No podemos guardarnos el gozo del Evangelio para nosotros, sino que debemos llevarlo a todos los aspectos de nuestras vidas: nuestras familias, nuestras escuelas, nuestro trabajo, nuestras corporaciones, nuestra política, nuestros círculos sociales y nuestras filosofías. No podemos simplemente aceptar la sabiduría del mundo como verdadera y conducir nuestras vidas como si la Buena Nueva fuera un asunto aparte. Son uno. Jesús nunca les pidió a sus amigos que fueran a construir edificios donde la gente pudiera venir a escuchar la verdad. Les pidió que fueran a sus casas y se encontraran con ellos uno a uno, cara a cara. Cuando la teoría se pone a prueba y el mensaje es desafiante, el rechazo es bastante posible. Esa es la prueba de fuego para saber si realmente estamos haciendo lo que se nos ha pedido. ©LPI
