KNOW YOUR FAITH –THE EUCHARIST

The Eucharist is also a sacrifice of praise in thanksgiving for the work that God has made good, beautiful and just in creation and in humanity. The whole of creation loved by God is presented to the Father through the voluntary death and Resurrection of Christ for the salvation of men. The Eucharist contains and expresses all forms of prayer. It is “the pure offering” of the whole Body of Christ to the glory of God’s name. “The Eucharist is the supreme proof of the love of Jesus. After this, there is nothing more but Heaven itself.” (St. Peter Julian Eymard, Mass Appreciation Guide) (resource: The Catechism of the Catholic Church)

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 24, 2022

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Meister Eckhart asks, "Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?" He answers, "God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: 'You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!' Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God." We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God's will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. "Thy will be done" is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call "Father." We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That's what makes the Lord's Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one's darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus' conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God's most perfect gifts and all we really need. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

En última instancia, ¿qué es lo que promete darnos Dios cuando oramos? La respuesta corta a esa pregunta es Dios. Dios promete darse a Sí mismo a nosotros en oración. La oración se trata de la unión con Dios, no de recibir favores. Cuando Dios viene a nosotros en oración, Su presencia viene con fe, esperanza y amor. Cuando encontramos estas virtudes realzadas y nutridas, sabemos que nuestra oración ha sido escuchada y contestada. Cuando buscamos, escuchamos y vivimos estas virtudes, nos encontramos de regreso a Dios y más unidos con la Presencia Divina. Luchamos con lo que queremos que Dios haga y cómo queremos que nuestra oración sea validada. Eso es lo que hace que la oración de Jesús, el Padre Nuestro, sea tan perfecta. Celebra una profunda relación íntima de confianza entre nuestro Creador y nosotros. Cuando clamamos persistentemente a Dios con amor, ¿cómo puede quedar sin respuesta esa oración? ©LPi

Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

Cuando te invoqué, Señor, me escuchaste.
