Use what talents you possess: The woods would be very silent if no birds sang there except those that sang best.

“La mano del Señor nos alimenta,” dice el salmista, “Responde a todas nuestras necesidades.” Ambos el sirviente de Eliseo en la primera lectura, como los discípulos en la historia del Evangelio que presenciaron la alimentación de los cinco mil, vieron y supieron que era verdad.

We have many ways to volunteer at our church. Here are just a few examples of our parishioners volunteering their time and talents. Do you want to be more involved in your parish? Just call the church office and we can get you the information you need to get you started. 843-347-5168.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Oscar Romero said, "We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is the beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest."

There were a group of ladies many years ago who made quilts. They were beautiful creations reflecting inspirational designs artfully composed from the simple scraps of fabric each woman would bring to their individual pieces. There was no plan for the finished project as each finished work became the combined creation of what each woman contributed. They abounded in vibrant colors and dazzled the beholder with intricate patterns and their myriad textures. They were so beautiful that they became coveted family treasures passed from generation to generation. Those women never realized the power of their work. Countless babies rested in the comfort of those quilts warmly nestled in the legacy of tradition they were fortunate to inherit. They adorned countless homes with their beauty and brought joy and solace to many faces. We cannot do everything. We are not meant to. Our work in life is to contribute our individual piece, a piece that reflects the unique thumbprint I claim as my own. We only have to do small things well. Then, as St. Oscar Romero reminds us, the Lord's grace will enter and do the rest. We have to trust that this is true just as those women trusted in the eventual beauty of their final work. Eucharistic blessings are blessings that start small and multiply. We all come to life with only a few loaves of bread and a few fish. Not any single one of us has all that it takes to transform our world. Who knows what God will do with the little we have and how many will benefit from our kindness, compassion, wisdom, courage, conviction, love, warmth, zeal, faith, and hope? That young lad never dreamed that his few leftovers would do all that they did. God shows up in unexpected ways! Where would life's adventure and fun be if it were any other way? Being able to be part of bringing God's creative, transforming, healing to the world opens us up to wonder, awe, and excitement! We can all bring our little piece to the bigger work of God that can result in being a coveted jewel passed generation to generation. This is good news indeed! Bread and wine transform into Christ's Body and Blood and we become what we eat. Trust that. ©LPi

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

17º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

"Aquí hay un muchacho que trae cinco panes de cebada y dos pescados. Pero, ¿qué es eso para tanta gente?"

Enseguida tomó Jesús los panes, y después de dar gracias a Dios, se los fue repartiendo a los que se habían sentado a comer. Igualmente les fue dando de los pescados todo lo que quisieron. - Jn 6, 9. 11

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

¡Dios se hace presente de formas inesperadas! Justo cuando pensamos que tenemos la agenda de Dios resuelta, llega otra sorpresa. Esperar encontrar a Dios solo en algunos lugares nos impide encontrarlo en todas partes. ¿Quién hubiera pensado que los pocos panes y peces de un niño alimentarían a miles de personas? Los discípulos probablemente estaban tan asombrados como todos los demás cuando este festín se les apareció. A veces, nos resulta difícil creer que Dios puede hacer cosas maravillosas con algo pequeño y simple. Sin embargo, captar esta verdad está realmente en el corazón de la comprensión del poder de la Eucaristía. Tener el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo presentes es una maravilla asombrosa. En realidad, ser alimentado y nutrido por ese don es otra. Ahora que podemos convertirnos en lo que hemos comido, Dios puede hacer cosas tremendas con los dones simples y humildes de nuestra vida. Todo lo que tenemos que hacer es darnos cuenta de que Dios habita dentro de nosotros. Cuando lo hacemos, todas las personas con las que nos encontramos y todo lo que hacemos tiene el poder de convertirse en un momento sacramental. Cuando se hace con gran amor, incluso el gesto más pequeño se puede multiplicar exponencialmente. ¡Eso es asombroso! ©LPi
