GRIEF SUPPORT

The holidays will soon be upon us and this time of year can be especially difficult for those who have lost a loved one. St. James would like to invite those who are suffering from loss to come together and support one another through sharing and remembering. Sessions will be held twice monthly in the parish hall, with the first session on Monday, November 16, at 4:00PM-5:00PM. The sessions will be lead by our parishioner Teddi Tomsic, a retired healthcare chaplain with over 35 years of experience. You may call the office to register or just come on Monday, November 16.

LADIES' GUILD NEWS

WE ARE LOOKING FOR NEW MEMBERS TO JOIN THIS MINISTRY. Come to our next meeting this Monday, November 16, at 10:00AM-12:00 Noon in the Parish Hall to find out what the Ladies Guild is all about. We are socially distancing and wearing mask. We also offer our meeting by zoom, call Suzanne at 843-347-5168 for more information.

COMMUNITY MISSION DAY HELPING HANDS NEEDED!!!

Can you lend a helping hand for a few hours on a Saturday? The Mission St. James team is partnering with the organization Home Works of America to help someone in need at their home on Saturday, November 21, (date subject to change). We will paint, do minor repairs on the home, clean up the grounds, and various other small projects to help improve the quality of life for someone in need. You don't have to be a builder or be well-versed in construction. We are simply looking for eager volunteers with servant hearts. If you are interested, please contact Taylor Monahan at 843-347-5168, ext. 235, as soon as possible.

REMEMBRANCE TREE: The Youth Group will be putting up a Remembrance Tree the month of December to honor the memory of loved ones with a personalized ornament. Forms for ornaments will be available the entire month of November on a bulletin board across from the women's bathroom. We ask for a minimum donation of $5. If you'd like to place an order, or have questions, contact Taylor Monahan at 843-347-5168, ext. 235.

GOSPEL MEDITATION -November 15, 2020 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God gives us the gift of His very self and asks us to invest it. Investing God's greatest gift of Himself wisely, allows God's kingdom to grow and flourish. God trusts us with this pearl of great price in hopes that it will produce abundant fruit. While God's gift of self is realized in the gifts of faith, hope, and love, they are not meant to be solely for personal benefit. They are intended to be shared and are at the heart of Jesus' blueprint for happiness, the Beatitudes.

When we properly invest God's greatest gift, His most treasured possession, we invest in the wellbeing of all of our brothers and sisters and the world in which we live. We take up most seriously our call to be stewards and properly manage, not only our own affairs, but the affairs of those around and before us. God has put tremendous confidence in us. Do we have that same confidence in God?

We often go the extra mile and put in the additional effort when it comes to those concerns closest to us: our families, friends, careers, home and securities. But when it comes to things that are not as close to us, we can become lax and less conscientious. Tending to God's treasure requires a great deal of focus and persistent hard work. It demands that I see the bigger picture, God's picture, in which self-sacrifice is a given as we labor for the establishment of God's kingdom, God's vision. Fear and a lack of trust can loom large, however. We are afraid of letting go of what is "mine" and apprehensive of jeopardizing what we have in order to venture into something bigger and more promising.

Fear and a lack of trust serve no purpose in God's kingdom. They benefit neither the person nor God. What is required is a courageous resolve that produces the fortitude necessary to stay the course and do what God is asking. Doing all in our power to cultivate the seeds of faith, hope, and love in our world, working diligently to put all of our relationships in proper order, becoming attentive to systems and ideologies that hurt and oppress people, being mindful of injustice, and laboring on behalf of the poor and the needy are at the core of what each of us is asked to do. It is how we invest God's most precious gift wisely. If persistent, alert and attentive, then life will gradually improve around us, there will be greater peace and we will experience joy. ©LPi

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO—15 de noviembre de 2020 33er Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Este domingo escucharemos en la Liturgia sobre la parábola de los talentos y de cómo el Señor reparte estos de acuerdo a las habilidades de las personas. Dios ha invertido en nosotros y espera que esa inversión dé frutos de acuerdo a la capacidad personal. Hablando en términos actuales, algunas personas ahorran en bancos, y hasta ponen su dinero en la bolsa de valores, otras en cambio prefieren tener su dinero en casa, aunque no gane ningún interés.

De acuerdo al Evangelio, dos de los servidores hicieron muy bien. Sin embargo, el tercero no se preocupó en lo absoluto de poner a trabajar lo recibido. "Es importante no encerrarse en sí mismos, enterrando el propio talento, las propias riquezas espirituales, intelectuales, materiales, todo lo que el Señor nos ha dado, sino abrirse, ser solidarios, tener cuidado de los demás". ¿Han pensado en los talentos que Dios les ha dado? ¿Han pensado en cómo se pueden poner al servicio de los demás? ¡No entierren los talentos! Apuesten por grandes ideales, los ideales que agrandan el corazón, aquellos ideales de servicio que harán fructíferos sus talentos". La vida no se nos ha dado para que la conservemos celosamente para nosotros mismos, sino que se nos ha dado, para que la donemos. ¡Queridos jóvenes, tengan un corazón grande! ¡No tengan miedo de soñar cosas grandes!" Y añadió el Papa. "Nos dice que la espera del retorno del Señor es el tiempo de la acción. Nosotros somos el tiempo de la acción, tiempo para sacar provecho de los dones de Dios. (Papa Francisco a los jóvenes). ©LPi
