ST. BLAISE BLESSING OF THROATS
will be held on January 30 and 31

It's an ancient custom of the Church to bless the sick, rooted in the ministry of Christ and his apostles. The memorial of St. Blaise is February 3; therefore, the blessing of throats will take place after Masses the weekend of January 30 and 31, after the closing blessing the priest will do a general blessing over the parishioners from the altar. Please stay in your seats for the blessing. Everyone is invited to receive the blessing, which is so needed during this season of colds and the flu.

7 THEMES OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Catholic social teaching is a central and essential element of our faith. Its roots are in the Hebrew prophets who announced God's special love for the poor and called God's people to a covenant of love and justice. It is a teaching founded on the life and words of Jesus Christ, who came "to bring glad tidings to the poor...liberty to captives....recovery of sight to the blind" (Lk 4:18-19), and who identified himself with "the least of these," the hungry and the stranger (cf. Mt 25:45). Catholic social teaching is built on a commitment to the poor. This commitment arises from our experiences of Christ in the eucharist. In the coming weeks, we will share the 7 Themes of Catholic Social Teaching that we are called to follow in light of Jesus' ministry and his call to follow in his footsteps.

LENTEN BOOK STUDY

Please mark your calendars for a Lenten Book study on Catholic Social Teaching hosted by our Social Justice Ministry! This book study is open to everyone and will be available in English and Spanish. We encourage you to take the penitential season of Lent as an opportunity to grow in love and communion with our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ, learning how to live out peace and justice. The book study will be held on Tuesday evening's at 7:00PM, starting Tuesday, February 23, and will run for 5-6 weeks. We encourage you to join us in person (socially distanced, of course!). However, an option to participate via Zoom is available. All materials will be provided to you. If you would like to register, please contact Taylor Lilly at tlilly@stjamesconway.org or by phone at 843-347-5168, ext. 235.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We have often heard it said that God is always calling but we are not always listening. It is not only that we are not listening, but that we are not familiar enough with God to even recognize that it is God who is calling! We can easily mistake God's voice for someone or something else and miss some profound opportunities for connection. We have to train our minds, hearts, and souls to specifically listen for the voice of God. It is a voice that draws us to deeper places, leading us to moments of grace and more profound God awareness. To look at Jesus and be able to say, "Behold, the Lamb of God," means that I know something special about this person whom others know as simply a man. I will become more attentive and receptive when he says, "Come, and you will see." I may even be more willing to set aside what I am doing and actually go. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

A menudo hemos escuchado decir que Dios siempre está llamando, pero no siempre estamos escuchando. No es solo que no estamos escuchando, sino que no estamos lo suficientemente familiarizados con Dios para reconocer que es Dios quien está llamando. Podemos confundir fácilmente la voz de Dios con alguien o algo más y perder algunas oportunidades profundas de conexión. Tenemos que entrenar nuestras mentes, corazones y almas para escuchar específicamente la voz de Dios. Es una voz que nos lleva a lugares más profundos, llevándonos a momentos de gracia y una conciencia más profunda de Dios. Mirar a Jesús y poder decir: "He aquí el Cordero de Dios," significa que yo sé algo especial acerca de esta persona a quien otros conocen simplemente como un hombre. Me volveré más atento y receptivo cuando Él diga: "Ven y verás." Incluso puedo estar más dispuesto a dejar de lado lo que estoy haciendo e ir. ©LPi
